North Wales*

The Venue

Maesmors Hall offers the most tranquil and magical setting for your wedding day, from the service through to the wedding breakfast, reception and the accommodation.

From small intimate weddings to lavish events with a marquee, you have exclusive use of the house and grounds which date back to the 13th century and are situated alongside the River Ceirw. You will be surrounded by 150 acres of glorious Welsh countryside, landscaped gardens and woodland creating endless opportunities for lasting and memorable photographs.

Completely hidden, the Hall has undergone alterations and refinements over the centuries allowing its ancient heritage to sit comfortably with all the modern luxuries one could wish for providing a warm welcome and relaxed atmosphere.

As a home, not a hotel, we are able to offer you ultimate privacy and unrivalled flexibility. We offer a very personal service at a venue that is both romantic and intimate. The house and grounds are solely yours during the day enhancing the exclusivity of your wedding.

Create your own unique 'Wedding in North Wales'. Be it a marquee wedding reception in the gardens, a private blessing in the rose carousel, a civil ceremony in one of our 6 licensed rooms or even a humanist ceremony on the open air motte.

Wedding Facilities

Wedding Ceremonies

You have a choice of 6 licensed rooms for your civil ceremony for up to 100 guests.

Choose between the refurbished Edwardian Conservatory, perfect for summer weddings or the ceiling to floor Oak Panelled Hall with its log fire, delightful for smaller winter weddings or even the intimate Morning Salon with French doors opening onto a pebble path creating an open air aisle.

There is also The Lockett Room with its French doors opening onto the garden terrace and the elegant Drawing Room with its windows overlooking the main lawn. Lastly there is the hidden Summer House providing a step back in time amongst a haven of tranquillity.

Humanist ceremonies and blessings can also take place at Maesmors Hall. The Motte or the Rose Carousel are the most popular parts of the garden for these to take place.

The Motte is encircled by beech trees more than 200 years old which create a cathedral effect and an incredibly magical setting for your ceremony. The Rose Carousel is on the lawn to the west side of the main house and becomes a truly beautiful feature with thousands of white and pink roses.

Wedding Receptions

The wedding reception can follow either in a marquee in the colourful gardens for unlimited guest numbers or wedding receptions for up to 55 guests can be seated in the main house.
